1.2. Electricity

In Turkey, the power plugs and sockets are of type F. The standard voltage is 220 V and the standard frequency is 50 Hz.

1.2. Izmir in a Nutshell

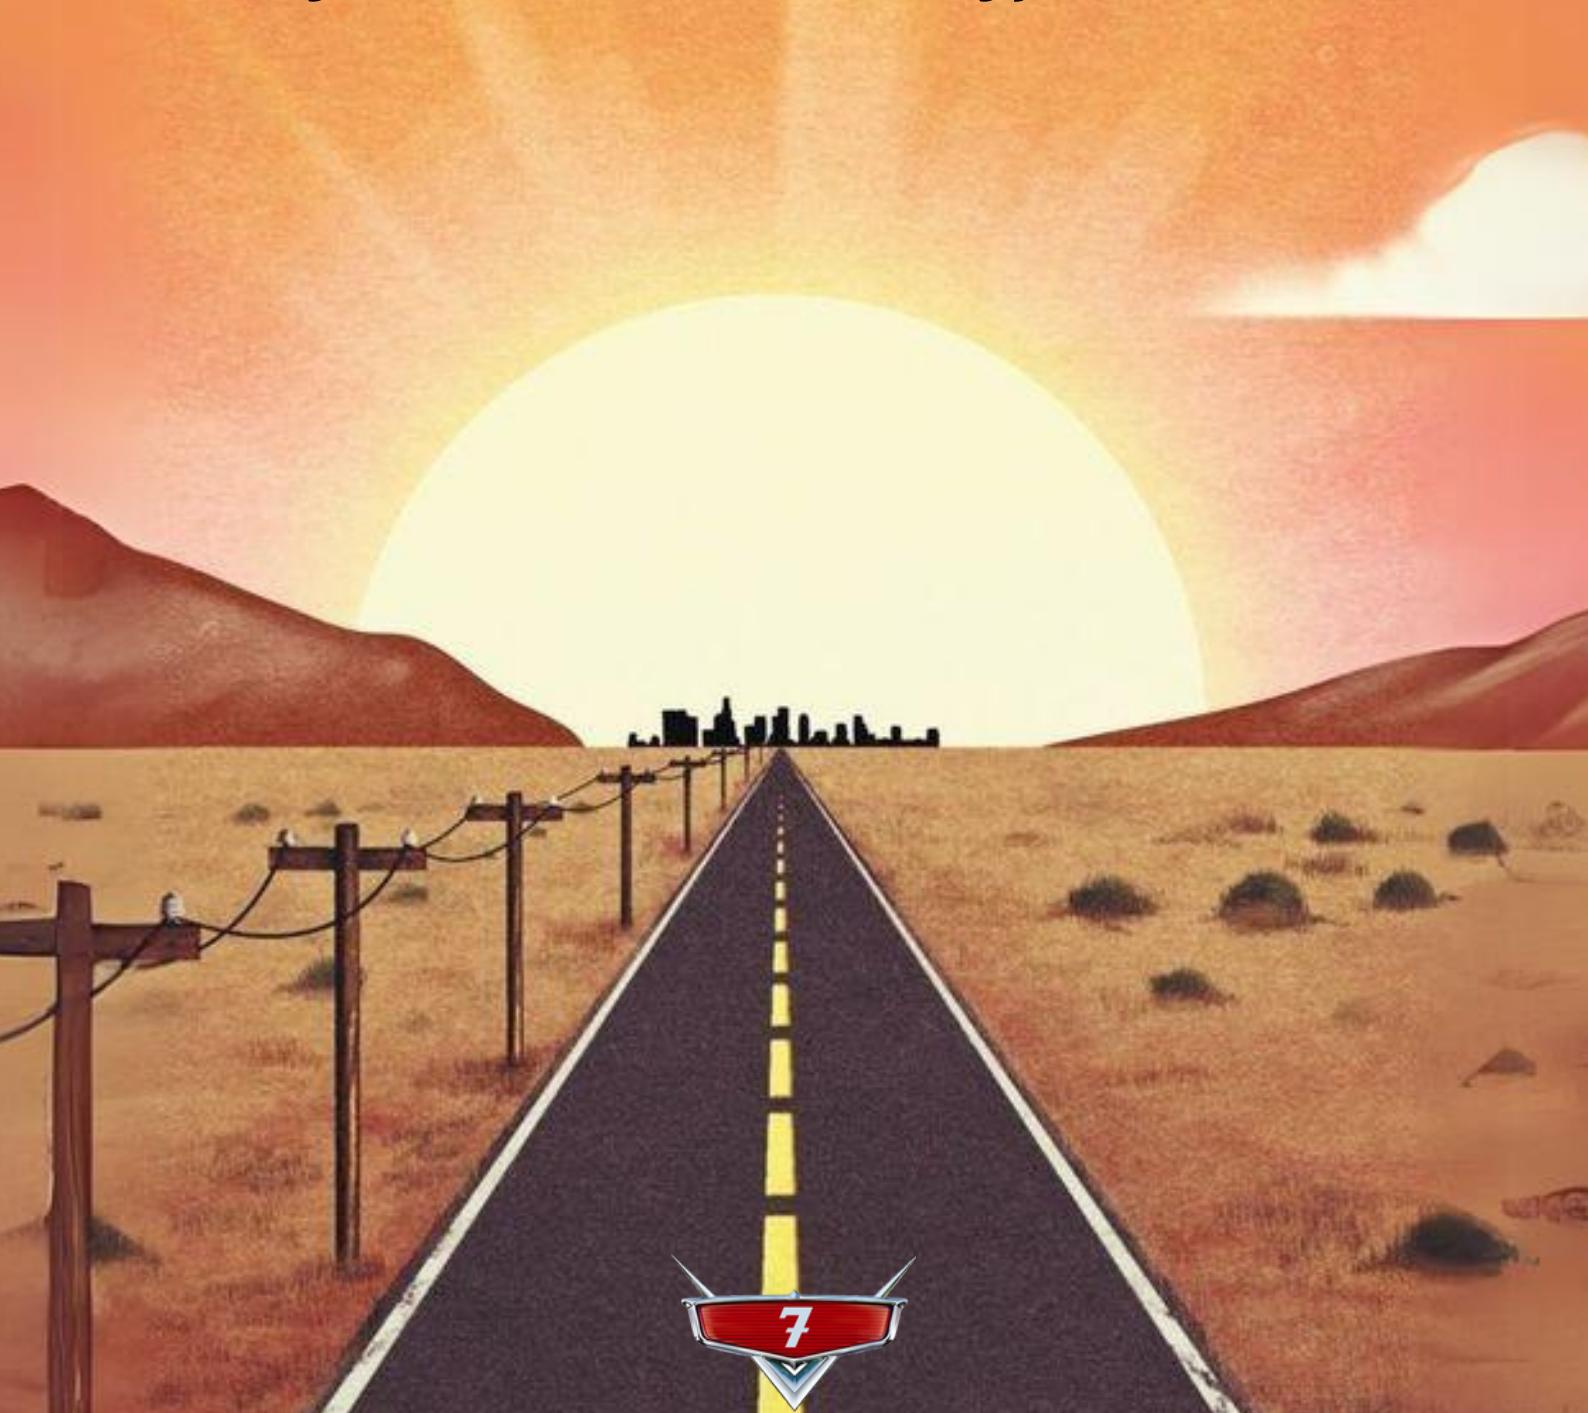

Izmir (a.k.a. Pearl of the Aegean) is the third-biggest city in Turkey, the second-biggest port after Istanbul. Izmir, with its distinctive charm, offers a refreshing departure from the bustling pace of other Turkish cities. Its cosmopolitan ambiance and relaxed lifestyle create a welcoming environment that resonates with visitors and residents alike. Nestled along the stunning Aegean coast, Izmir's picturesque vistas and serene beaches captivate the soul, inviting moments of tranquillity and reflection. Despite not boasting the same renown as Istanbul, Izmir's rich tapestry of history, from the ancient marvels of Ephesus to the quaint streets of Konak, leaves an indelible mark on those who explore its storied past. Moreover, the city's culinary scene, brimming with tantalizing flavors and local delicacies, offers a gastronomic journey that delights the senses and fosters a deep appreciation for Turkish cuisine. In essence, Izmir's blend of coastal beauty, cultural heritage, and culinary delights creates an unforgettable experience that sets it apart as a pearl of the Aegean.

1.2.1. Izmir's Weather (in September)

The average minimum temperature (usually the minimum temperature is noted during the night) in Izmir in September is 18 °C (64.4 °F). The average maximum daytime temperature lies around 28 °C (82.4 °F).

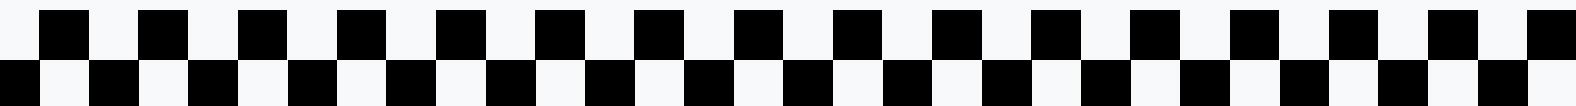

So what to wear in September? Dresses, tops, t-shirts, skirts and shorts made of cotton or linen are good options for staying cool on a hot day. With a water temperature of around 22 °C (71.6 °F), this is a great month to swim, so bring your swimwear!

1.2.2. How to Reach?

Our meeting point is going to be at the Bornova Metro. You can check the location from this link.

Most public transportation in Izmir works with "IZMIRIMKART" which you load money, one pass is 13.00 TL (€0.37) with it. We suggest you get one card (75 TL, €2.14 cost) and load it with some money upon your arrival. However, to buy Izmirimkart, you need to find an open box office, which may not be available if your arrival time isn't between standard working hours (9 a.m-5 p.m). We suggest you time your arrival between these times, which will make your travel to our meeting point much easier. If you can't find an open box office to buy Izmirimkart, you should buy "Bilet 35" from the automates to travel with a 3 pass ticket is priced 70.00 TL (€2.00), which should be enough.

When you arrive at Bornova Metro, there is going to be someone from us to take you to our accommodation place. Call one of the organisers, which you can find the phone numbers at the contact page.

by Plane

by Bus

Izmir Adnan Menderes Airport, 16 km south of the city center, has regular flights from many European cities. When you land, connect the airport Wi-Fi and inform us of your arrival via WhatsApp. After landing, you have 3 options to arrive to our meeting point (Bornova Metro).

1- Bus:

Airport buses operates between city center and airport in both ways. When you come to in front of the exit of the airport, you will see the bus station on your left side. Wait for the bus, which is numbered as "204". Buy your ticket from driver. It costs about 28.66 TL (€0.82 cost). Just have fun during your 40 minutes trip till the LAST STOP which is our meeting point Bornova Metro!

You can check the transportation timetable of the bus here.

2- Metro:

When you land, follow the signs to go into IZBAN subway to "Aliağa" direction. You get off at HALKAPINAR, where you get off and connect to "Metro Izmir". You are going the "Evka3" way. Your stop is "Bornova", where you meet us.

You can check the transportation timetable of Metro here and IZBAN here.

3- Taxi:

If you can't find the bus, or just too lazy to wait for it, you can take one of the yellow Taxi's right where you get off the airport. Tell the driver you're going to "Bornova Metro" and it will cost approximately about 650 TL (€19).

1.2.3. Some of the Food You Must Try When You Come

LOKMA

The king of desserts with syrup, also originates from Izmir. This dessert is made of dough, deep-fried and soaked in plenty of syrup. You can find a shop which sells Izmir lokma at every corner of Turkey; however, this dessert should be tried in its hometown.

KUMRU

Literally translated as "collared dove", is a sandwich and takes its name from the shape of the bread used to prepare it. It contains sausages, salami, kashar cheese, tomatoes, peppers, tulum cheese, mayonnaise and ketchup. Kumru buns are prepared fresh every day at bakeries and can also be eaten without any ingredients.

BOYOZ

As the most famous delicacy of Izmir, boyoz is a kind of pastry generally eaten at breakfast. Boyoz is usually eaten with boiled eggs. If you wish to experience a typical Izmir breakfast during your visit, you can enjoy a breakfast more wonderful than you expected with boyoz, eggs and tea.

BOMBA

Which has recently increased in popularity thanks to social media, is another delicious flavour originated from Izmir. Bringing chocolate and dough together in a perfect harmony, this dessert is a favourite among chocolate addicts. Bomba may look like a cookie but is much more than a cookie and, of course, its most delicious version can only be found in Izmir.
